High up on the list of sites to visit is a Roman aqueduct and theatre that held prominence during this era. The next stop you will make is at Muhraka – this is the place where Elijah and the Prophets of Baal had a confrontation that reverberated for many years. You will be attracted to the fantastic views of the Jezreel Valley and lower Galilee while you are in the area, and it affords memory-making photo opportunities for travelers. Megiddo is the site where Armageddon took place, and the battlefield is on display that presents a traveler an excellent chance to learn of the history of the area. The Church of All Nations, also known as "The Basilica of Agony," is the first stop. Next, is a Roman Catholic Church on the Mount of Olives next to the Garden of Gethsemane. The apostles relate, Christ went to the garden to pray before his arrest, as he knew he would be crucified and asked for forgiveness for those who played a role in his death. It is not often that you can visit a street, which was the main street of a city 2000 years ago. But a walk along Cardo will show you the tapestry of the city in those days. Once you have made your way down the Cardo, Temple Mount is the next place to visit, with the Western Wall close by. If you want, you can say a prayer. Walk into Christ's path when you travel down the Via Dolorosa, where he was led down on this street with the cross on the way to Mount Calvary. After your spiritual walk in Christ's sandals, the Church of the Holy Sepulcher stands as a testament to the history of the Old City. For the shopper and the haggler in you, we drive to "The Arab Bazaar" to test your bargaining skills, where everything is under the sun and the price is always negotiable.
